SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—According to R. M. Thompson, capitalist of Kansas City who is in San Francisco, there will be a new line of steamers to Honolulu, Hongkong and the Philippines.

"The proposed line," he says, "will have Tohobimpo in Mexico, as its Pacific Coast port and it will be operated in connection with the Kansas City, Mexico and Oregon Railroad. The latter is a new enterprise backed by Messrs. Stillwell, Sylvester and other well-known railroad builders and their associates from Kansas City.

The route from Kansas City by rail and sea to Honolulu, the Philippines and Hongkong will be about 3,500 miles shorter than any other.

"Our concessions and subsidies with the Mexican government have been perfected, and the railroad will be in operation within eighteen months save for a distance of 100 miles over the Sierra Madre mountains in Mexico. Traffic arrangements have been made with the Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul Railroad so as to give Chicago the benefit of the new rail and ocean route."

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.
SANTA ROSA, Nov. 2.—Today's session of the State Baptist Association was devoted principally to the discussion of the subject of foreign missions and church literature. Revs. George E. Dye and T. G. Bronson delivered addresses relating to "The Pacific Baptist," the church publication on this coast, and the report of the Publication Society was read by Rev. E. R. Bennett.

A special plea was made for better support for the church paper, and it was decided that more money should be secured, endorsement from sufficient to place it on a permanent and self-sustaining basis. In discussing this phase of the matter, Rev. James Dama and Rev. E. R. Coombs were very active.

The report of the Committee on Sunday School Work was read by Mrs. B. F. Farmer, after which Earl S. Blingham, the secretary of the California Sunday-school Association, delivered an address. At the conclusion of Blingham's address, the committee voted to stand the funeral of Joel Crane.

At the afternoon session the cause of foreign missions was warmly discussed. Among those participating were Rev. G. B. Hill of Japan; D. P. Williams of China; Rev. W. H. Cross of Cruz. Tonight the Historical Society met. A paper was read by Rev. C. A. Buckbee of San Francisco, and addresses were made by Revs. O. C. Wheeler and E. R. Bennett of Oakland.

DROWNING OF A KLONDIKER.

BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS—A.M.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 2.—J. B. Stewart, a Klondiker, who came down from Dutch Harbor on the whaler Karuk, which arrived today, reports having a hard time to get down the coast from Nome. His companion, A. A. Bashor, of Salem, Or., was either washed or knocked overboard from the small schooner Bear on the 8th ult. and drowned.

Stewart started from Nome for Dutch Harbor in company with eight others.

July 26. They were aboard a small sailing vessel, the Liege, which was washed ashore and wrecked at Good News Bay. From Good News Bay they started for Dutch Harbor in a small boat, landing at Bristol Bay. There they took the bear. They were driven out sixteen days. On the 8th of last month Bashor, while on deck, went overboard. The boat was so far out when it was washed ashore and the bear was swimming struck him.

Bashor was formerly a poor man of Salem. He made one trip to the Klondike and brought out a fortune, which he left at home, going to Nome to take care of his wife and his three children when he met death. He leaves a widow and family.

When the Orisaba, which contained the cable, was wrecked near St. Michael, it was reported that the cable could not be laid before next spring.

The Alaska Commercial Company, however, bought the wreck of the Orisaba for $1250, and took out the cable. They loaded it on their steamer, the Sadie, and quickly laid it to Nome. The distance from Nome to St. Michael is 15 miles.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] J. J. O'Brien and K. Ihse, a pair who have been giving exhibitions of the unique "Jin Jieu" self-defense at a New York Theater, worked tricks of Jin Corbett at Woods Gymnasium this afternoon. Corbett, equipped with gloves, was personal to himself against the two men who had "bodied" the outfit. The affair terminated with Corbett having a wholesome respect for the Jap finger graps and wrist turns that make big men writhe. The Jap sent the pugilist to his back on the mat with a simple twist of the hand.

Later, Corbett was invited to strangle the Jap, and a rope was tied about the latter's neck. By manipulation of the neck muscles entirely, those who were unable to raise the ropes constriction, despite the pugilist's full strength.

[INT DIRECT WIRE TO THE TIMES.]

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—[Exclusive Dispatch.] George F. Considine, until recently manager of Jim Corbett, who settled with the pugilist when he took the mysterious trip to England that led to divorce proceedings by Corbett's wife, issued a statement today of a startling nature, tending to verify the charges made by both Mr. Corbett and Mrs. McCoy, that the fight between Jim Corbett between the two pugilists was not "on the level." Considine states that McCoy informed him in England that he "laid down" to Corbett, and that when, on his return to this country, he taxed the latter with participating in a fake fight, Jim admitted that he knew McCoy was going to lay down.

Considine is anxious to clear himself from any blame in the matter, and to this end has written a letter.

"On my arrival in New York, and before making any statement, I called on Corbett and accused him of having a part in a fake fight. This he denied, but I caught him in several misstatements. He then admitted that he knew McCoy was going to lay down, and I said to him: 'Why didn't you tell me a fit instead of making a monkey of me?' to which he replied: 'What for? so you could tell Jim Sullivan, who would make McCoy fight 'on the level,' and I was glad to do it.' McCoy's fight was 'on the level,' and I was glad to know that he was going to lay down."

he will be given a pension in active at the age of 65.

McGovern took his time, only occasionally pulling into Bernstein, but when he did it was with a smashing succession of blows which appeared to be matched from a mysterious hand.

After two minutes and five seconds of the seventh round had passed, McGovern had his opponent down. Bernstein was badly dazed and could not speak for some time.

McGovern had a cut on his punch in either hand, but McGovern blocked, rushed and bewildered his antagonist with blows from all directions, and Bernstein was the same instant.

Picking the winner was a consideration. The question was "How long will Bernstein last?" That was the betting proposition.

In the eighth round McGovern showed his whirlwind form and ripped in killing stabs that took the steam out of Bernstein. Down Bernstein went repeatedly. Terry walked around like a tiger. Bernstein was unable to get up after a right hook to the jaw, and Referee George Eller waved Terry to his corner and stopped the fight.

Oscar Gardner and Dave Sullivan challenged the winner. Bernstein weighed 125 pounds, McGovern 122.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—With blood streaming from deep cuts over both eyes, and a savage expression on his countenance, big Fred Russell, the California heavyweight, broke from a clinch as the gong sounded the close of the fourth round of his fight with the veteran, Joe Choyinski, before the Colorado Athletic Association here tonight, and with two terrific punches to the body sent the latter flying through the ropes and onto the floor of the clubhouse, where he remained nearly five minutes, stretched at full length. Two big policemen then lifted him to his feet and assisted him into the ring. Joe immediately walked up to Russell, who raised with his seconds to one side of the ring, apparently wondering what happened, and squared Russell's foul play on Choyinski caused intense excitement among the handlers, club officials and spectators, and Joe's seconds were fixing him up, the timeskipper sounded the gong for order. Joe, thinking it was the call of time, got up for business again, and was only restrained by the sharp shouting of the crowd that he was bad.

The fight was the most vicious ever witnessed in Denver. Russell's great weight and strength were more than Joe could stand, and he was frequently thrown off his feet and against the ropes. He clinched frequently to have himself, and in breaking received some very hard punches. Joe gave some very hard jabs to Russell's head and body, and through the heat over both of Russell's eyes, causing the blood to flow in streams.

Just after the fight started, Joe went to the nose with his hands on his groins, and showed evidence of pain. He struggled to his feet, and Russell nearly threw the referee out of the ring in his efforts to get at Joe, which brought a storm of hisses from the crowd.

There was a real deal of wrestling all through the fight, and Joe was thrown to the floor several times, and return threw Russell clear over his head. Russell's superior weight gave him the advantage in this style of fighting, and he undoubtedly would have won Joe down and knocked him out had the fight continued. Two thousand persons witnessed the bout.

The "busters" were escorted up from the depot by the Columbia Club, in white duck uniforms, and doing fancy evolutions, and by a mounted band of rough riders, whose horses plunged and reared before the fusillades of pistol shots. In this way they were addressed by George P. Adams, Mr. Barrett, after which the club was carried off by the Santa Ana Women's McKinley Club to the most charming of places.

The "busters" couldn't tear themselves away from Santa Ana in time, and coming back home the engineer turned the thing on full tilt, and the "Terror" simply tore up the atmosphere between Santa Ana and home.

FUN AT ANAHEIM.

At Anaheim, where a good crowd had gathered, in spite of the fact that it was past 10 o'clock, a festive Bryanites was dissolved. He got some advice which, if he takes it to heart, may make him a better man. How glad he may be some day that he waited around for hours for the supreme satisfaction of saying "Hooray for Bryan" when he was supposed to say "Hooray for McKinley." Mr. Wade was talking at the time, and he proceeded to rip into that recreant right howler in a withering fashion.

The rest of the crowd yelled for instant approval at every stinging remark.

FULLERTON TURNS OUT.

There was a short stop at 10:30 at Fullerton, and here Mr. Wade made a speech to another crowd which swarmed over the depot, and seemed to feel satisfied for staying up.

HOME AGAIN.

Then the train steamed into La Grande station, after a little jaunt of sixteen hours.

JUST BEFORE THE BATTLE, BROTHER! LAST STAGE OF THE GREAT CONTEST

VITAL ISSUES.

CROKER WILL BE AN ISSUE.
THAT'S SURE.QUESTION OF TRUST LAWS
PAST AND PRESENT.SOME POINTS FOR THE "AUNTIES" TO CONSIDER WITH MUCH CARE—IS BRYAN FIT?

CROKER AN ISSUE.

IT IS NOT SURPRISING THAT CROKER
SHOULD CALL GOV. ROOSEVELT A "WILD MAN." Indeed, after reading the GOVERNOR'S REMARKS YESTERDAY AGAINST THE REPUBLICAN PARTY, IT IS NOT SURPRISING THAT CROKER HAS HAD REASONS TO FEEL INCENSED. ROOSEVELT MADE HIM THE
"PARAMOUNT ISSUE" FOR THE DAY, AND
WAS NOT ESPECIALLY CAREFUL IN HIS USE
OF STRONG WORDS WITH WHICH TO EXPOSE
AND DISCOURSE CROKER METHODS IN POLI-TICS. THE GOVERNOR APPEALED TO THEbe no big dinners. At all events, his eyesight is so much better that he can distinguish a little prosperity. He told one of the West Virginians who met him on Monday that the boasted prosperity of the Republican party was confined to a small section of the country.For this concession let us be thankful.
In a day or two Mr. Bryan may leave for the North and West. Some of his Southern friends may whisper into his ear the price of cotton.—[Pittsburgh Dispatch.]

BRYAN ON THE RACE QUESTION.

A TEST OF MR. BRYAN'S CANDIDATE OF THE REPUBLICAN PARTY. For good while he ignored the subject.
Lately he has taken it up. He does not, however, really discuss it. He prefers to make it an occasion for saying things like this:"When we complain that the Republicans are applying in the Philippine Islands doctrines that deprive people of the right to govern themselves the argument that a Republican makes is the same of the Southern States have adopted measures requiring an educational qualification for voting."I WANT TO SUBMIT THIS QUESTION TO THE REPUBLICANS: Do they approve of what is being done in the South or do they oppose it? If they oppose it, why do they not do something about it? In Puerto Rico and in the Philippine Islands there have been proposed the South."Mr. Bryan does not seem to appreciate his position in the controversy.
The Tammany boss had good reasons to feel incensed for Roosevelt made him the "paramount issue" for the day, and
was not especially careful in his use
of strong words with which to expose
and denounce Crotter methods in politics. The Governor appealed to theveloped evils which can readily be corrected by proper legislation, but the organization themselves can not be abolished without injuring the growing interests of the American people."If I am right in these views it is evident that the nostrums proposed by Mr. Bryan for the regulation of trusts are quack remedies. They are not cures for the ills, but cures from an entire misconception of the nature of the problem and of the trend of modern progress. The great corporations which have sprung into existence within the last years are due to an evolution which no man can arrest than the flow of the tides.They are not injurious to the community or to the working classes.They give more steady employment and a greater demand for labor. The wages have been raised and the prices of the commodities produced have been lessened."In the common stock of corporations Mr. Hewitt sees an opportunity for workingmen to secure control of the business.—[New York Commercial.]

BRYAN'S FITNESS AS ISSUE.

THE absorbing issue is the fitness of Bryan for the Presidency, the safety of the nation under such an administration as he would afford it. Everything else yields to that. Intelligent observers of public affairs saw that the national convention was held. The Democrats were warned against nominating Bryan. They would have it so. They are now reaping the consequences of their action. Now, after all the Presidential contest settled, as to be apparent, even to the most obtuse observers, weeks and months before the election is held, and with the prospect that is not only to elect Mc-parties and the letters of acceptance of both candidates. You have read some of the pamphlets sent out by the committees. You have read and heard some of the speeches of Mr. Bryan, Mr. Roosevelt, Mr. Hanna, Mr. Hill and others. Now I want you to read and think over a few sentences of plain talk from a workingman.I have made up my mind how I am going to vote and I want to ask you to vote the same way.I am not an orator nor a scholar. I cannot make a speech nor write a magazine article. I am just an ordinary everyday workingman with intelligence enough to have a little common sense and tell it to others. I am not writing this for pay. It will probably cost me a week's wages to get a few thousand printed. Then to get Mr.
Crotter or Mr. Hanna want to circulate it as we are welcome to it.Now as far as I am, how I am going to vote and why.I am a workingman with a wife and four children. Eight years ago, in 1892, I was doing fairly well, and my older boys were both at school. I voted, as did all good Democrats, for Grover Cleveland. In less than a month after election, just before Christmas, I lost my job. I could not get another. Things went from bad to worse. The boys left school and tried to earn little money. We never got in the bottom Madison Square and did sometimes get near the bread line at Tenth street. I could not tell you all the hardships of those four years. Always behind in the rent and half the time without anything to eat.
The wife was sick and the boys
I did anything to earn a dollar.
You have read the platforms of bothup, but the patient, hopeful wife would say: "Cheer up, old man, you will get a job soon and then we will be on our feet again."My wife, have you got a faithful wife? Have your children got a good, patient mother? Then you know what kept us from absolute despair.With the help of other workingmen voted for McKinley. We hoped for a change. In less than a month I got a job and have had work constantly these four years. The boys soon went back to school. I am now getting $12 a week. One of my boys went to preparatory school and will enter college two years from now—if I do not lose my job. My wife and I have plenty to eat and wear and we boys are happy.Fellow-workingmen! Do I need to tell you how I am going to vote?I don't exactly understand this question of imperialism, except that I am for the workingman, and I do not believe the good can be wants to make this country an empire.

I know little about the money question, except that when I earn a dollar I want 100 cents, and when I put a little money in the bank I want to be sure of taking out as much as I put in,

with a little interest.

I don't know much about the tariff, except that free trade would throw me and thousands of others out of a job.

I don't know much about government by injunction, the consent of the governed, initiative and referendum, etc.I don't know much about the income tax or graduated tax or the mon-oply law. The boys will know alltive and mislead the people in order to achieve his own ambitions. He told them in his own relief that the present condition will be found only in his election to the Presidency and in the free coinage of silver. Both propositions were rejected, and yet prosperity has come to our country.
The free silver proposition is a bad one for the Bryanites to hold, this one and hence they resort to another political trick and Bryan offers himself as the savior of the nation. Bryan as President would be a menace to peace as well as to commerce.W. L. MAY. Almost from the earliest

THE NATION'S CHOICE: MCKINLEY AND ROOSEVELT, REPUBLICAN NOMINEES.

The flag of our country that flies over the Philippines floats in honor for liberty and humanity and for the American name.—[From the remarks of William McKinley at Staples, Minn., October 13, 1895.]

ON THE POLITICAL FIRING LINE

A vote for Bryan is a vote to haul down the flag. A vote for McKinley is a vote to keep the flag afloat.

A vote for Bryan means a vote for free trade in citrus fruits, dried fruit and wool. Think of that.

Somebody is asking the question: "What is hell?" For answer apply to Bryan next Tuesday at midnight.

Addie Stevenson says: "Ohio will give Bryan a majority of 50,000." Another of Addie's added statements.

A vote for McKinley means a vote for the protective tariff on all the products of this section. Think of that.

None of Bryan's prophesies have any better mark of genuineness about them than they had in 1886.

In a short time Mr. Bryan will be remembered only as the orating gentleman who split asunder and hoodwinked the Democratic party.

A vote for McKinley is a vote to maintain our rights. A vote for Bryan is a vote to give up our rights.

Commercial failures in the United States in 1895 numbered 15,000; in 1896 they numbered 710. Democratic majority, 57%.

Bryan's Bryan says he is not opposed to "honest wealth." Of course he considers the profits of the ice trust "honest wealth."

Grover Cleveland's silence is a regular whining, bawling, vociferous-temperamental remonstrance of the non-Graveridean ideas of Bryanism.

Bryan's appeals to the poor people of the country would be more effective if he would travel as common people do, and forgo the pleasure of $12 dinners.

Politicians who are constantly shrieking "fraud" should be laughed very closely. No person calls "thief" quite as lustily as the thief himself.

A tearful dog dying down the street with a tin can upon his tail would successfully illustrate the Bryan laze; noise at one end, howl at the other.

"Why should a man hush for Bryan?" asks Gov. Roosevelt, and up to the present moment there is a deplorably large vacuum in the atmosphere.

The large number of persons who are getting out of the sinking Peperican ship indicates that when the goes down the loss of life will not be very great, after all.

A vote for Bryan means a vote for a cowardly surrender of our rights in the Philippines and for a cowardly shrinking of our duties to the Filipinos and to the world.

Should any attempt be made by the unscrupulous Croker to steal the vote of New York, he will find Gov. Roosevelt a harder adversary with the sword of the Empire State in his hand, than he was on the stump.

Some excited individuals assert that the hens have ceased laying until after the election. Well, no patriotic hen will lay eggs for the sugar-sweet Falstaff to hark at Teddy Roosevelt.

A vote for McKinley is a vote for manfully shouldering the responsibilities placed on this nation by the Treaty of Paris. Mr. Bryan was instrumental in getting the treaty ratified.

A Georgia man's wife has presented him with triplets, which have been named William Jennings, William Bryan and Jennings Bryan. If there is anything in a name, what a "house of calamity" this will be!

Democracy walls because the Republicans appeal to men's memories, but of their moods, directly, character. Mr. Bryan appeals directly to the imagination of the man; but it would be wise to remember that the imagination of the man.

A correspondent of the Sacramento Bee writes to that journal that he is in favor of Bryan, and adds that "every man who owns a home with a mortgage should go in for free silver." He also writes, "every man who thinks he should be a good citizen should be a good voter."

In a speech at the Reform Club dinner in New York on April 24, 1897, Grover Cleveland condemned the course of Bryan and others in sowing the seeds of class hatred, discontent and disorder. He also deprecated the efforts of the Bryanites to deceive the people with the idea that free-silver coinage, with its necessary concomitant of depreciated currency, would prove an efficacious remedy for the ills of which they complained. Mr. Cleveland recently addressed to Hon. Don M. Dickinson, Postmaster-General under his last administration, the following letter:

PRINCETON, Oct. 29.—The Hon. Don M. Dickinson—My dear sir: The speech I made at the Reform Club dinner in April 1897, is a part of my record in advocacy of free Democracy. I can not repeat it, but I will repeat it in part: "I do not believe that I shall not be able to say to you all of you that I have not been able to make up my mind to do this."

"GROVER CLEVELAND."

BUSINESS.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL

OFFICE OF THE TIMES
Los Angeles, Nov. 2, 1900.
THE MONEY-ORDER BUSINESS.
The money-order business of the Federal government shows a considerable increase during the last fiscal year over the preceding year. The immensity of the business is shown in the fact that the government has sent out more than $1,000,000 orders last year. The transaction compare as follows with the year ending June 30, 1899:

1898. 1899.
Money-orders issued ..... $2,000,000.00 $2,000,000.00
Money-orders paid ..... 800,000.00 800,000.00

COMMERCIAL.

RICE SEEKS TO BE A "GOOD BUY." It is reported from New Orleans that fully 90 per cent of the rice planters of Southwest Louisiana met at a place called Crowley, says the New York Grocer's Advocate, on October 18, to sign the signing of the contract set by the promoters, or the rice combine.

The result was favorable to the success of the proposed scheme. The planters signed the contracts, which provide that their entire crop for four years shall be sold to the combination at stipulated prices. The signatures represented an annual output of about 1,000,000 bushels of rice.

Most of the whitest and best-known rice planters of Louisiana are said to have taken part in the meeting.

Reports from the rice-growing parts of Texas are favorable to the combine, and the promoters expect the Texas planters to fall into line and sign the contracts on presentation. Others seem to be very ready to be induced to take similar action, and higher prices for rice in the near future.

CALIFORNIA FIGS. The shortage in the Smyrna fig crop has encouraged California figs to sell at a large amount. It is estimated that the output in the State may be 150 carloads.

SARDINES IN GOOD DEMAND. Imported French sardines are in quite good demand. But the importation to get in before a further advance, says the New York Commercial, which is expected before long. Goods are quoted as follows: One-fourth, with eye, $10.50; 1/4 lb. with key, $10.50; 1/4 lb. bonito, $10.50.

WHEN A CHECK IS ABSOLUTELY PAST DUE. Most people regard their checks as good money, and deposit them in the bank, as an absolute receipt for payment. This is not always so, says the Grocer's Advocate, but in general it is safe to assume that this is the case.

Sometimes bills are paid by checks drawn by other persons. Now, if the creditor neglects to cash such checks promptly, and should ever sue for the amount covered by them, the debtor will be required to show that the check had been paid in cash, and that the drawer of the check had enough money in his bank to back it up. The foreign markets were dull and heavy this week, and London did little here, being a seller on balance.

Having shown these two facts, he has established a complete defense. If there was not money enough on deposit to pay the check if it had been promptly cashed, the creditor cannot be held to have been negligent in respect of the amount due him. The receipts issued by the creditor are not conclusive. He may explain them by showing they were given in exchange for checks, and that the checks were never paid. As soon as he has established that fact, the debtor may show by the books of the bank, or by any other competent evidence, that the drawer had enough on deposit when the check was drawn to him, and that will be competent evidence. It will follow, therefore, that the creditor's loss was due to his own negligence, and he will not be allowed to recover.

PRIZES OFFERED FOR INVENTIONS. Scientific activity in the first year of the twentieth century should be greatly stimulated by the large sum of $500,000 offered for the encouragement of the National Industry. These are a few of the chief subjects, says the Rochester Democrat, competition being open to all nations.

A motor weighing less than 50 kilograms per horse-power developed; an important advance in mechanical methods of transmitting energy; automobile suitable for town and country, respectively; the utilization of any waste product; a publication useful to chemical or metallurgical industry; useful scientific research in chemistry, physics, or mathematics; goods, notably of iron and steel. The actual resumption of operations in the anthracite coal fields has added largely to the working force, and the closing down of a few small steel plants is only in the nature of temporary operations at more advantageous points, and has not much reduced the number of men employed. The latter some sections of the iron and steel business, but at New York it has been unseasonable, accounting for much of the loss of 15.3 per cent. in bank clearings here. Encouraging signs multiply in the iron industry. Strength in Bessemer, and a ray of light at Pittsburgh shows that the recent depression in the market has not been general. The foreign markets were dull and heavy this week, and London did little here, being a seller on balance.

Bank Clearings. NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—The following table, compiled by the New York Stock Exchange, shows the principal cities for which the clearing of the market for November 1, with the percentage of increase and decrease compared with the corresponding week last year:

STATE OF TRADE.
DUN'S WEEKLY REVIEW.
BY THE NEW ASSOCIATED PRESS.—P.M.

NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—R. G. Dore & Co., Wool & Textile Review, says:

THE market will show that the period of suspense is nearly over. Business has been longing for a free field in which to leap forward, but restricted buying largely to wants for immediate consumption. Some evidence appears of willingness to take speculative chances in the movement of the market in the principal centers. The market in the principal goods, notably of iron and steel. The actual resumption of operations in the anthracite coal fields has added largely to the working force, and the closing down of a few small steel plants is only in the nature of temporary operations at more advantageous points, and has not much reduced the number of men employed. The latter some sections of the iron and steel business, but at New York it has been unseasonable, accounting for much of the loss of 15.3 per cent. in bank clearings here. Orange Shipments. NEW YORK, Nov. 2.—Wednesday night the orange season closed with a record of 17,522 cars for the season, far the largest on record. Yesterday the new season began with a shipment of one car of new naval oranges from Glendora, and seven cars of lemons from various points in the section. Some five cars of new naval oranges were shipped from the valley, and a few from other points. There are about five cars of last crop Valencia oranges still held for Thanksgiving day trade.

LOCAL PRODUCE MARKETS.

LOS ANGELES MARKETS. Fruits are unchanged today. Dried fruits are not very quiet, but are firmly held. For choice to fancy raisins there is a fair demand from the trade which is preparing for the holidays.

Fruit is firm. Stocks of old wheat are so low, many millers have been obliged to grind new wheat before it was available for delivery. This is making very sorry bread.

Butter is steady; eggs are firm, fresh being very scarce.

Choice potatoes are firm, and onions are held.

Meats are a trifle easier for pink, but limes and small whites are firmer. Small whites are very scarce.

Game is coming in freely and to some extent, but is not very good, which is a little dull at weaker prices.

Apples are very firm. A car of Oregon Winesaps of fine quality is just in.

WHITTIER.

SCHOOL REFRATORY NEEDED.

WHITTIER. Nov. 2.—[Regular Correspondence.] A proposition has been made to the Board of Examiners, whereby it is proposed that the refactory of the Whittier State School may be rebuilt before the coming of the winter rains. The refactory building was burned eighteen months ago and since then the vice-versa of the cadets has been accomplished under difficulties. A considerable part of the building was of brick. The dining-hall was a two-story affair, the upper story being occupied by the comparative dormitory, which assumed the role of a hall for the time being, placing the men in the dormitory, men armed with shotguns and revolvers. Before the now excited occupants of the cars could recover their wits the train was headed and they were carried out of doors about 200 feet from the kitchen to the tables. Under ordinary conditions, that is, when the train was piled high with passengers, the men, who were in sight, would have run up the steps of the train from the south and the men of the bogus bandit band would have themselves behind nearby box cars, to await the arrival of their victims.

This was the method taken by members of the Americus Club and other Republicans of the city to give "Teddy's Terrors," who were making a raid around the circle, and the plan to terrorize the "Terrors" was a success.

The mock hold-up was engineered by Ralph Skillet, Whittier Elliott and Campbell of the Americus Club, and they were abetted by G. A. Gibbs, Calvin Swartzel, Mr. Republicans, each of whom assumed the role of a hall for the time being, placing the men in the dormitory, men armed with shotguns and revolvers.

Before the now excited occupants of the cars could recover their wits the train was headed and they were carried out of doors about 200 feet from the kitchen to the tables.

Under ordinary conditions, that is, when the train was piled high with passengers, the men, who were in sight, would have run up the steps of the train from the south and the men of the bogus bandit band would have themselves behind nearby box cars, to await the arrival of their victims.

Whether the engineer was in the secret or not is immaterial; he discovered the construction and brought his train to a standstill, the nose of the train plunged into the side of the past board, and, throwing up his hands at the command of a burly man with a revolver in his hand, he left the train at the mercy of the attacking party.

Some unusual incidents occurred at the arrival of the train, which was punctuated with the simultaneous discharge of hundreds of firearms in the hands of the parties. Two Passengers were taken prisoners by the "Terrors" and were taken to Lamanda Park, where they were released, returning home. The train, which had been stopped by a passenger that Gov. Roosevelt had arrived, and both men having been taken to the Santa Fe station, hoping to hear a speech by the popular Rough Rider.

BOARD OF TRADE MEETING.

At the monthly meeting of the Board of Trade this afternoon Secretary Frank Wiggins and F. Q. Story of the Los Angeles Chamber of Commerce made address in behalf of contributions to the fund to aid the Angeles county exhibit at the Pan-American Exposition and for assistance in the work of protecting the San Gabriel forest from fire. The plan is that the trees be surveyed and the contractors telegraph line built and all means taken to prevent a recurrence of the disastrous fires which have caused such destruction in the past.

The Board of Trade was requested to appoint a committee to present the matter to the Council and ask for an appropriation of $500 or $600 as Pasadena's contribution to the fund. The money was to be used for the exposition fund.

ORANGE COUNTY POLITICS.

Democratic Camp Fire Flickering—Lies That Don't Deceive—Rally Tonight.

SANTA ANA. Nov. 2.—[Regular Correspondence.] The political fire in the camp of the Democrats has begun to go down, except in the instance of the candidate for Assemblyman, to whom all the support of the machinery is being turned in the hope of defeating Dr. D. W. Eason of Buena Park, the Republican candidate. The fight for Crichton for Congress and Mervine for the State Senate has been practically abandoned, many of the Democratic workers now being out hustling in the endeavor to trade both Crichton and Mervine votes for one Spurgeon voter.

In their effort to make a good showing for the Democratic nominee for the Assembly all manner of devices are being resorted to to hoodwink the unsuspecting voter, one of the most glaring of which is the statement that in his general support Mr. Spurgeon donated the sum of $10,000 to the city upon which the new County Court house is being erected. This statement has been freely circulated in the western portion of the county among the country voters. The facts are that the property of Crichton, who is the Democratic Board of Supervisors paid Mr. Spurgeon $8000 for this block of land, when another site was offered the county for $5000, which was considered by the county to be preferable to the one chosen by Mr. Spurgeon.

After the meeting the ladies of Chatsworth park served ice cream and cake, the proceeds of which will go to the building of a new church for the town some future day.

The Spurgeon did not exist in the last Presidential election. It will cast about sixty-five votes, and there will be a Republican majority.

which enlivened the meeting. The speaker of the evening was G. L. Clegg, who informed the audience about an hour covered the main issues in that brought forth enthusiastic applause from the Republicans.

Some of the Democratic speakers did not listen respectfully to the speaker, and only cringed outside after the meeting. The point they seemed to want to make was that it was not the work of the people that it was the work of Wellington that won the election.
